introduction

Hello. I'm half Swedish half American. I've lived in 9 countries. I enjoy making a difference in the world through code.

You can count on me to:

- Develop high quality software on time.
- Work well in a team.
- Learn and adapt quickly.

I've been a Rails full stack developer since 2015. Today, I build React web and native apps.

Check out my portfolio site (sunden.io) to see what I've built and for more detailed information about my skills and experiences.
